1. Leave the car park and turn left onto Low Road, take this road for 100 metres to footpath on the right-hand side of the road where the row of houses end.
2. Follow this path on a slight downward gradient to the obvious gap in the hedge facing you, approximately 200 metres from the road.
3. The path deviates slightly to the left as it passes over the water meadows, on the far side you will find two small wooden bridges that cross a small stream, approximately 110m.
4. You are now on Riverside Road, turn right and walk along the small road for 320 metres until a footpath sign is found in the hedging on the right.
5. Take the pathway into more water meadows continue in a relatively straight line after passing over a small bridge. After 165 metres you reach the edge of the water meadows where a small stream can be found.
6. Take the path on the left-hand side of the stream and follow between hedge and stream to the road, approximately 115 metres.
7. You join the road on a sharp bend, turn right and walk up the slope back to The Turks Head (100 metres) where drinks and refreshments may be obtained.
