Walk B

Short walk approximately 2.1km from Turks Head round meadows and fields to the south and west.

Can be muddy in places, not suitable for pushchairs or wheelchairs.

1. Leave the car park and turn right down the hill (100m).
2. At the sharp corner you will see a footpath sign on your left at the far side of Lantern House. Follow this path at the side of the small stream. (150m).
3. Just after the bend in the stream the path follows the right-hand hedge along the water meadow. On the far side of this meadow pass through the gates into paddocks. Keep to the right of these paddocks passing through further gates. (400m)
4. You now enter arable farm land and walk a short distance with the hedge on your left. At the hedge corner the path goes across the field towards the road junction in front. Then along the field edge to your left crossing onto a hard standing at the road corner. (260m)
5. Take the pathway up and across the field towards the right-hand corner of the small wood in front, on reaching the woods turn right across the field passing the pole on your left. (350m)
6. Reaching Mill Lane take the path directly opposite you and continue in a straight line until you reach the road. (150m).
7. On joining Low Road continue straight along the road until reaching The Turks Head which
